☆ Spring is Here! **☆

Flower Viewing:

"Let me die in spring under the blossoming trees, let it be around that full moon of Kisaragi month" (-Saigyou Houshi)

When it comes to flowers, perhaps one of the most loved by Japanese is the sakura, or cherry blossoms. The tradition of hanami, or flower viewing, takes place during the end of March and beginning of April. Friends and family, and coworkers from the office, all gather with bento box-lunches and drinks (plenty of drinks!) on blankets spread beneath the flowering trees. At night, parks and other famous hanami locations are lit up, and one can enjoy yozakura, cherry blossoms at night.

Be careful, though! It's still pretty cold this time of year, and there's a word for that, too: hana-bie; one should dress warmly for the flower viewing. Some more sakura-specific words include hana-gumori, when the skies are cloudy during the flowering, hana-arashi for the wind that scatters the cherry blossoms, and sakura-fubuki for the "storm" of petals that wind blows around.

News of the "Cherry Blossom Front" and Pollen Reports

News reports during cherry blossom season usually include a report about where in Japan the trees (usually the Somei-Yoshino cherry tree) are blooming. Progressing from south to north, the Cherry Blossom Front marches its way up the Japanese archipelago.

In addition, pollen allergy notifications are also broadcast with the news, sugi (cedar) pollen being especially prevalent in spring; the number of cedar pollen allergy sufferers is growing. Symptoms of pollen allergies (called kafun-shou) include a runny nose, itchy eyes, and sneezing. Methods of prevention can include wearing a mask to block pollen from entering the body, and taking

A New Year and Golden Week:

March and April see two major changes in the lives of young people. Some graduate from school and take jobs, becoming proper members of society—shakaijin. Others leave home to continue their education. Entrance examinations for school are held in this period, and both school and work begin anew. University students hold shinkan-konpa, a sort of enkai party for newly-enrolled students; the equivalent for shakaijin is the kansou-geikai.

Just as people are beginning to get used to their new environments, Golden Week begins. "Golden Week" is the period spanning the end of April and the beginning of May, during which a number of national holidays are lined up in a row. Various popular sightseeing locations fill up with guests, and both bamboo shoot-gathering and digging for clams are popular activities.

The fifth of May is Child's Day, also known as Tango no Sekku. People celebrate by eating chimaki, rice cake wrapped in bamboo leaves, and kashiwa-mochi, rice cake wrapped in an oak (kashiwa) leaf. Houses with boy children fly distinctive carp streamers, and display their satsuki-ningyo, or "May dolls".

Finding Housing (leasing with a real estate agent):

People looking for a residence to rent in Japan usually think about their budget and the size of the rooms, location with regards to public transport, and parking availability, then take these concerns up with a real estate agent to help them find a place. Some people also utilize specialty publications devoted to housing information, or have their office or place of work recommend something for them.

Rental rates are determined by the number of rooms and their size, age of the dwelling, location, convenience, and the like. Appliances and furniture usually are not provided with leased residences.

Rooms are generally listed as follows:

2 LDK means 2 (rooms), L (living room), D (dining room), K (kitchen)

The units of measurement to express size are tsubo and jyou. 1 tsubo equals 2 jyou, which is approximately 3.3 square meters. Jyou is also a measure of how many tatami mats a room has; 6 and 4 mat rooms are common.

1) Leasing with a real estate agent:

- (1) Deposit: a deposit is made before the lease contract is signed with the real estate agent. This ensures that the contract will be carried out as specified, and that no one else will contract at the same time. The deposit is later credited as part of rent unless the person contracting backs out of the deal, in which case it is not refunded. The amount of the deposit is usually equivalent to about one month's rent.
- (2) The contract: the following things are necessary for a proper contract. Be sure to check for them when leasing a residence!
- -contents of the contract and the leaser's seal or signature
- -guarantor: generally, someone who can guarantee that the leaseholder can pay. Also a person who can pay rent in the case that the leaseholder misses payment.

(Please refer to section P 8 of the Kagawa Prefecture Overseas Student Residence Guarantee Support System

- deposit: this deposit, consisting of approximately two months of rent, is held at the landlord's office and used to cover damage to the residence when the leaseholder leaves. Any leftover money will be returned.
- "key-money": an amount of money equivalent to approximately two months of rent, paid to the owner. This money is never returned.
- $\, \mathrm{mediation}$  fee  $\dot{\cdot}$  usually around one month's rent, paid to the real estate agency.
- (3) Rent: the following month's rent is paid at the end of each month. If a contract was signed in the middle of the month, that month's rental will be broken down and

The Islands of the Beautiful Seto Inland Sea

The Seto Inland Sea, blessed with a warm climate and nature in abundance, contains many islands. In total, there are 24 inhabited islands and 92 desert islands within Kagawa Prefecture. Why don't you try fishing, camping, swimming in the sea, cycling, sea kayaking or visiting sites of historical interest on these uniquely charming islands?

- O Shodoshima: The "Olive Island" has many places to see including the village used as a set for filming the adaptation of the famous novel "Twenty-four Eyes" by local author Sakae Tsuboi, a famous autumn leaf viewing spot, the Kankakei Gorge and rural Kabuki stages. There is also a miniature version of the 88-temple Shikoku Pilgrimage. The "Turtle Marathon" is held here every year in November. If you want to fully explore the island, renting a car at Tonosho-port is recommended. There is also a youth hostel on the island. Ferries and express boats run to Shodoshima from Takamatsu.
- Teshima: While the unlawful dumping of toxic wastes has been a problem, in 2000 a settlement for damages between the Prefecture and citizens of the island was reached. Nowadays, along with Naoshima, where industrial wastes are processed, Teshima has become a place for learning about the environment. The island has always concentrated its efforts on welfare, an example of this is the care home for babies whose parents cannot look after them themselves. The beginning of summer is a good time to visit to see orange trees blooming on the terraced fields. There is a high-speed boat to Tejima from Takamatsu and a ferry from Tonosho Port, Shodoshima.

(3) 家賃

1か月分の賃借料のことです。毎月月末に翌月分を支払います。月の途中で契約した場合は、契約した日からその月の月末までの分は日割りで支払うことになります。家賃とは別に共益費(アパートやマンションの階段、廊下など共用スペースの維持管理のため、居住者が分担する費用)も必要です。

(4) 契約更新

2年に一度の更新が一般的です。その際に家賃の値上げがある場合もあります。

(5) 解約

引越しなどで契約を解約したい場合は、ふつう1カ月前には家主に知らせなければなりません。通知しないで退去したり、退去の直前に申し出たりすると、敷金が戻らないことがあります。
